Welcome

Award-winning Hartland Abbey, with its beautiful gardens and parkland, has been in the same family for generations. Founded by Augustinian monks in 1157 in a wandering valley leading to the Atlantic Ocean, the Abbey was Dissolved in 1539, surviving longer than any monastery in England. Henry VIII gifted it to the Sergeant of his Wine Cellar whose descendants live here today in this welcoming, lived-in family home.

Experience the heritage, history and fascinating interiors, gardens, family memorabilia and beautiful walks in the clean Atlantic air. Children enjoy good, old fashioned fun - the Abbey Quiz, The Nature Trail and exploring winding paths around the woodland gardens and open spaces where friendly peacocks, black sheep and donkeys roam.

The Old Kitchen Tea Room serves delicious, homemade light lunches and cream teas. The Abbey Shop sells a range of gifts. The Abbey estate is frequently used as a film location. BBC's 'Sense and Sensibility', Rosamunde Pilcher's 'The Shell Seekers', BBC's 'Antiques Roadshow' and 'The Night Manager' by John Le Carré were all filmed recently. Hartland Abbey is not to be missed!

Our House & Gardens

See important pictures, furniture and porcelain collected over generations including portraits by Reynolds, Gainsborough, Hudson, Ramsay and Kneller; the fabulous circular, expanding table by Jupe; furniture by Hepplewhite and Chippendale; embroidery; stunning architecture including the magnificent Alhambra Corridor; murals depicting family involvement in mediaeval history; Victorian and Edwardian photographs from family albums of the Sudan Campaign and contemporary social scenes. The Museum displays seals, documents from 1160AD and intriguing family memorabilia; the 'William Stukeley - Saviour of Stonehenge' exhibition is a fascinating display.

Walk under a huge tree rhododendron to woodland gardens of camellias, azaleas and hydrangeas, the Gertrude Jekyll designed Bog Garden, Fernery and 18thC Walled Gardens. After decades of neglect visitors can now experience these romantic gardens as they were a century ago; massed tulips, spring bulbs, mixed borders, roses, tender and rare plants, organically grown vegetables and fruit flourish within the shelter of the mellow stone walls and rebuilt glasshouses. Walk to the Summerhouse, the Gazebo, the beach and Blackpool Mill Cottage; explore newly discovered paths, overgrown for a century, through bluebells and wildflowers in spring. Or just sit in the sun and enjoy the surroundings...
