

HARTLAND ABBEY AND GARDENS

GROUP BOOKING FORM 2017

- 1. GUIDED TOURS of the house are available by prior request at no extra charge and take approximately 45 minutes- 1hr. Allow extra time for the gardens, woodland walk to beach, lunch and cream tea. (Average visit 2 ½ -3 hours incl. gardens, grounds). If you are a special interest group please tell us so that we can arrange a tour with either Sir Hugh or Lady Stucley, or a guide with specific knowledge. For tours with Sir Hugh or Lady Stucley there will be an extra charge; please enquire.
- 2. FREE PARKING Large flat area adjacent to the house; ample parking for coaches.
- 3. SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS Please state if you have any.
- 4. DISABLED VISITORS will be able to view most of the main reception rooms; entry to the house is up some steps as it is unsuitable for a ramp. The mediaeval basement with museum & shop, William Stukeley Exhibition, audio/visual display, tea room and disabled WC are all at ground level and accessible for wheelchair users. Please ask for full details.
- 5. SCHOOL PARTIES etc. These must be properly supervised as many items in the Abbey are easily breakable.
- 6. DOGS Welcome in the grounds on leads; Guide Dogs only in the house.
- 7. LIGHT LUNCHEAS AND CREAM TEAS in the Old Kitchen Tea Rooms. We would be very grateful if you could book in advance if possible. Tel 01237 440044 to book your lunches or teas.

In order to make a full day out, combine HARTLAND ABBEY and its gardens and grounds with HARTLAND village with its wonderful pottery, furniture makers, artists and craft shops. The beautiful and historic ST. NECTANS CHURCH ('the Cathedral of North Devon') is very close (½ mile); guided tours with a local historian are also possible by prior request. Please tel. Stephen Hobbs on 01237 441450. HARTLAND QUAY, renowned for its spectacular cliff scenery and rocky beach, the scene of many past shipwrecks, is 1 mile away. THE SHIPWRECK MUSEUM at Hartland Quay is fascinating and well worth a visit too (Tel:01237 441218) or www.hartlandquay.com. There are many other attractions within easy reach; we would be delighted to help with suggestions. World renowned CLOVELLY is only 5 miles away. HARTLAND ABBEY is easily accessible from M5 Junction 27 and is only 5 miles West of Clovelly, off the A39.
